They who choose to hurt others

Think before you say anything

Dublin,London,New York, Los Angeles , 05.02.2018, 13:59 Time

USPA NEWS -

To all those people that attack those around you when they are down and prone, have been mocked, bullied, denied access to, blamed for something they didn't do, or deceived by your words, and leveled by your nonsense, you need to look into the mirror, you are part of the problem, though you may see yourself as a problem solver, a tough soldier;

the things you miss are more than I could ever say, or would dare say. Good people do not ridicule the lowly, the poor, the homeless, the aged, or the lonely. No, not at all, for good people tolerate, accept, give, forgive and welcome you into their world, because you are viewed as a person, as an equal. When you treat others with anything but respect, you lack sound judgment, for in you, in your life there is much to be left unsaid, best not to take you to task, you are too weak, and your message is intended to hurt the innocent, and who ever gave you the right or the power to feel justified, deplorable and disgusting behavior destroys lives, dreams and aspirations.

I hope you read into this message, and make an effort to be more careful, some people are too fragile, too meek to defend themselves. Think before you act - let others be as they are, do not bring them down with your demeaning, self-serving behavior. You do not have the right to hurt, or inflict emotional trauma on anybody. People are not broken - but your irresponsible behavior takes a toll that is not welcomed - time for you to take a step back and appraise your abusive way of being.
